DEPARTMENT COURSES

COURSE TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LECTURER
Interior design	During the course, students gain an in-depth understanding of the interrelationships between interior solutions and architecture. Students must work on the specifics and limitations of a particular situation to improve it both functionally and aesthetically. The main tasks of the course are convincing, professional work with the client-lecturer, clear idea formulation, and justified interior design layout and use of materials.	Uldis Lukševics
Presentation technique/Portfolio	During the course students work on the compilation and presentation of their creative and professional work experience. They study different infographic and portfolio samples, structure, content requirements, technical design and typesetting. The course culminates in the realisation of a personal portfolio, knollings, infographics and business cards.	Holgers Elers
Contemporary Art and Underground Culture Scene in the Eastern Europe under and after Communism	The course is dedicated to understanding of some important special features of art and culture of the region where Latvia (and the LAA students) belongs to – Eastern Europe. History and interpretation of the culture of the region during Soviet rule is yet to be written but it is important for the aspiring artists, designers, curators and art critics who live and work here understand its speciality and uniqueness in Europe. The course starts from the wide historical and cultural introduction to the subject and then continues with a discussion of on several important cases of contemporary art and underground cultural scene in USSR (Russia, Latvia), Czechoslovakia and Poland. In the middle of the course there will be another wide introduction – this time to the post-Soviet period. Second part of the course will be dedicated to the changes which happened in contemporary art and underground culture of the region after 1991.	Kirils Kobrins
Anatomy	Digitalized and interactive anatomy for art and design students to improve their drawing, painting, and sketching skills in anatomy. Based on Anatomy Next — anatomy learning tools for students and teachers. Anatomy Next is a very successful, world-known educational technology start-up to help students learn anatomy faster and more efficiently.	Uldis Zariņš
Creative Methods in Art Pedagogy	The course prepares students for planning and conducting art-based visual arts classes for school age children. Such an experience can be useful in teaching for both - formal and non-formal education. Graduates will gain theoretical knowledge and practical experience in transforming an idea based on creative practice (art or design) into a teaching practice.	Ilze Vītola
