DEPARTMENT COURSES

COURSE TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LECTURER
Drawing	Nude figure. Large-format (min. 120x80 cm) primed canvas or paper. Soft materials (coal, sanguine, sepia, etc.). Figure from different angles. Dimensional, tonal or line drawings.	Kristaps Zariņš
Painting	The aim of the course is to develop painting skills at the next level of complexity by painting a nude figure from nature, as well as staying on top of the world's current trends in painting. The assignment focuses on the study of the relationship between the figure and space, emphasizing the emotionality of the positioning of the figure in space.	Kristaps Zariņš
Composition II	Within the framework of the course, students are allowed to study this subject under their chosen Painting department's teaching staff member. Since all the lecturers in the department are also practicing artists, students have the chance to choose a professor whose artistic interests overlap with their creative interests. Throughout the course, students are encouraged to solve creative tasks in painting given by the lecturer, as well as to express themselves in other media. The course focuses on generating ideas, highlighting the individual artistic interests of each student, and the direction of their creative processes. It consists of work on the tasks set by the lecturer and individual workshop visits, which incorporate a critical evaluation of the student's creative work.	Student chooses the teacher himself
Contextual Composition	The course programme consists of modules or short masterclasses (a few days long). Each month the student is offered 2-3 masterclass options, of which one must be selected. Each semester, different guest lecturers from Latvia and abroad are invited to the masterclasses to offer students a short lecture or workshop module. They can be art theorists and practitioners, as well as representatives of other humanities — philosophers, musicians, dancers, movement therapy specialists, literary students, etc.	Author's collective
Practice of Painting Technology	Throughout the course, students learn different classical painting techniques such as oil paint, egg tempera, fresco. They are also trained to prepare the base of painting — to prime the canvas and wooden boards, to prepare the wall for fresco. The course focuses on practical technological knowledge acquisition; painting techniques are learned by painting copies of historical works of art.	Dmitrijs Laščetko
Art Media and Techniques	Within the framework of this subject, students may choose to study one technique taught in any of the AAL's sub-fields — analog photography, sculpting, graphic art etc. If students choose	Author's collective

	this course, they must fill out a questionnaire sent by the methodologist of the Painting department at the beginning of the semester, stating which technique in which sub-field they want to study.
Contemporary Art and Underground Culture Scene in the Eastern Europe under and after Communism	The course is dedicated to understanding of some important special features of art and culture of the region where Latvia (and the LAA students) belongs to – Eastern Europe. History and interpretation of the culture of the region during Soviet rule is yet to be written but it is important for the aspiring artists, designers, curators and art critics who live and work here understand its speciality and uniqueness in Europe. The course starts from the wide historical and cultural introduction to the subject and then continues with a discussion of on several important cases of contemporary art and underground cultural scene in USSR (Russia, Latvia), Czechoslovakia and Poland. In the middle of the course there will be another wide introduction – this time to the post-Soviet period. Second part of the course will be dedicated to the changes which happened in contemporary art and underground culture of the region after 1991.	Kirils Kobrins
Anatomy	Digitalized and interactive anatomy for art and design students to improve their drawing, painting, and sketching skills in anatomy. Based on Anatomy Next — anatomy learning tools for students and teachers. Anatomy Next is a very successful, world-known educational technology start-up to help students learn anatomy faster and more efficiently.	Uldis Zariņš
Creative Methods in Art Pedagogy	The course prepares students for planning and conducting art-based visual arts classes for school age children. Such an experience can be useful in teaching for both - formal and non-formal education. Graduates will gain theoretical knowledge and practical experience in transforming an idea based on creative practice (art or design) into a teaching practice.	Ilze Vītola
